Dear Southeastern Family:

Hubert J. Morel Jr.
President

Welcome to Southeastern Conference's 2011 Camp Meeting! We are delighted that you are here!

We realize that every camp meeting brings us a year closer to our Savior's return and now, more than ever before, we can feel the tremors! People everywhere recognize that something stupendous is about to happen. The signs that foretell the second advent of Jesus are fulfilling before our very eyes, and we believe that He could come in this generation! Sadly, however, many of us are not ready for His coming! Please note the following quote from the pen of inspiration:

"A revival of true godliness among us is the greatest and most urgent of all our needs. To seek this should be our first work. There must be earnest effort to obtain the blessing of the unprepared to receive it. Our heavenly Father is more willing to give His Holy Spirit to them that ask Him, than are earthly parents to give good gifts to their children. But it is our work, which God has promised to grant us His blessing. A revival need be expected only in answer to prayer. While the people are so destitute of God's Holy Spirit, they cannot appreciate the preaching of the Word; but when the Spirit's power touches their hearts, then the discourses given will not be without effect. Guided by the teachings of God's Word, with the manifestation of His Spirit, in the exercise of sound discretion, those who attend our meetings will gain a precious experience, and returning home, will be prepared to exert a healthful influence."
(Selected Messages Book 1, p. 121)

Gregory Mack
Secretary

It is with this realization that each of us needs to experience revival and reformation that we have selected our theme this year "Revive Us Again!" Every service, every workshop, and every other activity has been prayerfully planned with this theme in mind. It is our prayer that each soul will be rekindled with fire from above. We pray that you will have a real spiritual experience and that heaven will come down and glory fill your soul. During this encampment, we encourage you to pray earnestly for and with each other for the outpouring of the Holy Spirit.

Gwendolyn Parker
Treasurer

We invite you to take time to meet the Saviour. He is waiting to enter your heart. Draw near to His presence and expect a miracle. May this be the most rewarding camp meeting that you have attended so far, and may you leave here blessed, ready, and waiting for Christ's return. "Hallelujah! Amen."

HOW TO STUDY THE BIBLE

Monday, June 20, 9 a.m. – 10 a.m.

The most important, most beneficial, most critical responsibilities and privileges that we have in our lives, is Bible study. Some see it as a chore, some see it as a hard and mind boggling effort. Some feel they don't get anything out of Bible study, yet they study anyway out of a sense of obligation. But some have learned that Bible study is an open doorway to the heart and character of God. An opportunity, a priceless treasure, a faithful guide, a life transforming journey that will extend into eternity and beyond. This may be the personal experience of each of you here; maybe for some, you wish that this were true for you. Our goal is to give you a sturdy foundation and glimpse into what can be in store for you as you become better equipped as students of the word.

Significance of Ordination

Just as prophets, priest, and kings were anointed by oil for special roles, so the rite of ordination by the laying on of hands recognizes that God calls some, who are already His, for special purposes (cf, Mark 3:13,14). Ordination to the gospel ministry acknowledges special needs in the church body: (1) the need for leadership that provides to the membership both example and challenge to move forward in God's program (1 Cor. 11:1; 1 Tim. 4:12); the need for sentinels "on the walls of Zion," burdened with the responsibility to inform and alert the people of God (Eze. 3:17-19; 2 Cor. 11:2,3) the need for the Word and the authoritative preaching of the will of God to church members and in evangelistic outreach to the unsaved that rises from serious study of the Scripture (Act 6:2-4; 2 Tim 4:2-4).

"Ordination, an act of commission, acknowledges God's call, sets the individual apart, and appoints that person to serve the church in a special capacity. Ordination endorses the individuals, thus set apart as authorized representatives of the ordinances, to organize new congregations, and, within the parameters established by God's word, to give direction to the believers (Matt 16:19; Heb. 13:17). In short, ordination invests ministers with full ecclesiastical authority to act on behalf of the church anywhere in the world field where they may be employed by the church (The Acts of the Apostles, p. 161). Seventh-day Adventists do not believe that ordination is sacramental in the sense of conferring some indelible character or special powers or the ability to formulate right doctrine. It adds no new grace or virtual qualification (ibid., p. 162).

The biblical background of the rite indicates that it was an acknowledged form of designation to an appointed office and a recognition of one's authority in that office (Ibid). By this means the church sets its seal upon the work of God performed through its ministers and their lay associates. In ordination, the church publicly invokes God's blessing upon the persons He has chosen and devoted to this special work of ministry.

Ordination Candidates

Orville Brissett

Orville Brissett was born in Bay Shore, New York on March 7, 1977 to Owen and Marlene Brissett Sr. A product of Christian education, Orville attended Bethesda Seventh-Day Adventist School. In 1995, Orville graduated from Pine Forge Academy and then went on to attend Oakwood University from 1995-1997.

In 1998, Orville joined the U.S. Navy where he served as an Operations

Specialist on board the USS Estocin and Commander Second Fleet. He also served as the lead enlisted instructor and leading petty officer for the department of professional development at the United States Naval Academy located in Annapolis, Maryland.

In 2002, after a lengthy Jonah experience, Orville heard and accepted the Lord's calling on his life to enter the ranks of pastoral ministry. He enrolled in Hampton University where he received a bachelor of arts degree in religious studies. He currently is finishing requirements for the master of arts degree in pastoral studies at Oakwood University.

Orville served as a pastoral assistant at the Miracle Temple SDA Church under the leadership of Freddie Russell. After faithful service at Miracle Temple SDA Church, the Southwest Region Conference called him to serve as the senior pastor of the Emmanuel SDA Church and the Ephesus SDA Church in Hammond and Covington, Louisiana where he served from October 2006 – April 2009. During his tenure in Hammond and Covington, the Lord blessed the church to complete an extensive renovation and many souls were baptized into the Seventh Day Adventist church. In April 2009, he was installed as the senior pastor of the Macedonia and Port Saint Lucie churches in the great Southeastern Conference.

Since his arrival the Lord has blessed the district to increase in tithe, complete renovations, purchase a mini-bus and van as well the addition over 60 souls baptized into the Seventh Day Adventist Church.

Orville is married to the former Tiffany Smith of Richmond, Virginia They have been married for 14 years and to this union they have been blessed with three children, Julian 13, Kennedi 10, and Micah 4. Tiffany serves as women's ministry leader and founder and co- chair of the Treasure Coast Adventist Youth Association.

Orville is the founder of Fire on Friday, which is a non-traditional Friday night service, geared towards reaching youth and young adults in the communities that surround the churches. He is also the speaker for the "Speak to My Heart Broadcast" which airs every Sabbath afternoon from 6 -6:15 p.m. on WFLM.

Orville is a lover of music, reading, and sports. He is convinced that "God doesn't call the qualified but he qualifies the called." His favorite text is Romans 5:8 – "God commended His love towards us that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us."

Ordination Candidates

Everis Clarke

Everis Clarke was born to the late Percival and Caterlena Clarke, in Hanover, Jamaica. He attended Harrison Memorial High School, where he a student leadership award, and served as Head Boy, in his final year. He pursued undergraduate studies at Northern Caribbean University in Jamaica. In 1984 he received a bachelor of arts degree in theology. His graduate study was in Social Work, with an emphasis in Child and Family Counseling. He holds a master of science degree in social work, from The Ohio State University, located in Columbus, Ohio.

He completed a two year internship with West Jamaica Conference, where he subsequently pastored. He has also served the church in Central Jamaica Conference. After completing his graduate studies, he served in the capacity of a child and family therapist, with Crittenton Family Services and Franklin County Children Services in Columbus Ohio. He also served as a family counselor, with Community Connection, an outpatient Behavioral Counseling Center, in Rockville Maryland. His pastoral career in the United States began with The Chesapeake Conference in Maryland, where he pastored a district of two churches on the Eastern Shores. Currently he is the pastor of the Mt. Sinai and Mt Gilead churches in Sarasota and Bradenton, Florida.

He is married to Grace Levy-Clarke, M.D., an ophthalmologist. They met at Northern Caribbean University. She is a graduate of the Medical College of Wisconsin, the Ohio State University Department of Ophthalmology, and The National Eye Institute. They have been married for two years. Their union produced two sons, Everis Clarke, Jr., who recently completed his first year at Seton Hall Law School, and Edouard-Hugh Clarke, who will be a junior next year at Forest Lake Academy.

Everis philosophy is by serving others we can emulate the life of Christ, and thus exemplify true discipleship. He daily rejoices: "I delight greatly in the Lord; my soul rejoices in my God, Isaiah 16:10, NIV.

Ordination Candidates

Leonard Newton III

Leonard Newton III, was born to the proud parents Leonard G. Newton Jr. and Marlene A. Newton in Boston, Massachusetts. He is married to the former Shelly-Ann Walker. From their union, God has blessed them with a daughter Sanaa (4), who is a beautiful gift from God.

By God's grace and mercy they are looking with great expectancy for the birth of their second child in July of this year. A product of Christian Education, he attended Bethesda Elementary School and later he attended Miami Union Academy located in Miami, Fla. He graduated from Oakwood College in 2002 with a bachelor of arts degree in theology. He was impressed to continue his education and graduated from Walden University in 2008 with a master of science degree in psychology.

Leonard Newton's high school years were not only meaningful but a significant period in his life. It was during his freshman year of high school that he heard the Lord's call to enter the ministry. Leonard told the Lord that if He wants him to enter the ministry, He should have someone to ask him to speak at the student led chapel service.

After making that request, he settled into a smug complacent, feeling that no one would ever ask him to speak. He was shocked when he was approached by the student Chaplain with an invitation to speak at the next chapel service. That day he learned an important lesson. Our God, not only extends a call to service, but He equips the called.

Ministry over the last 6 years has been a growth experience for Leonard. He started his ministry in August 2004 at Ebenezer & All Nations SDA church in Central Florida. During the four and a half years of his tenure at the All Nations Church, God blessed him to have the support of hardworking members and skilled craftsmen, who were willing to catch his vision to build a church, which was completed in 2008.

In October 2008, Leonard was transferred to South Florida to pastor the Alpha Agape Church and Lebanon SDA churches where he continues to follow God's lead.

Leonard's greatest influences in his life were his grandfather and his mother. His grandfather, L. G. Newton Sr., an Adventist pastor, spent many wonderful hours together sharing his heart for the work of the Lord and the high points of his over 40 years of ministry.

He is grateful for his mother Marlene whose prayers have set the tone and fabric of his commitment to ministry. Leonard's ordination is a bitter sweet experience because his grandfather, who died in June 2009, will not be able to witness it. Nevertheless, he thanks God for his many blessings, his supportive wife, the beautiful family God has given him, and his extended family and friends.

Ordination Candidates

Alex Williams

Alex Williams is a native of Los Angeles, California. He was 11 years old when he heard God's call to pastoral ministry. Understanding the awesome responsibility placed before him, he chose to go another route instead. However, the call returned, but with greater power! He decided to accept God's call and attended Oakwood University in Huntsville, Alabama where he received a bachelor of arts degree in theology. Upon completion of his studies at Oakwood, he was selected to be a featured speaker in a massive evangelistic effort in Malawi, Africa, where 2,000 precious souls were baptized.

Upon returning to the United States, Alex accepted an invitation to pastor the Trinity Temple Seventh-day Adventist Church in Fitzgerald, Georgia, as well as the First Seventh-day Adventist Church in Hazlehurst, Georgia. While in Georgia, Alex served as chaplain of the Dorminy Medical Center and vice president of the Ben Hill County Ministerial Association. He also led a very soul-stirring prison ministry. Currently, he is pastor of the Salem Seventh-day Adventist Church in Pompano Beach, Fla. and Ebenezer Seventh-day Adventist Church in Dania Beach, Florida.

Alex has been married for nine years to one wife that he affectionately calls his "girlfriend"; the former Mithra Hampton of Columbus, Ohio. They have two beautiful children; Joy, (7) and AJ, (4).

With the help of the Holy Spirit, Alexis' ministry has led to scores of souls being won to the kingdom of Christ. He is a lover of the Word of God and enjoys sharing the truth with others through preaching, teaching, counseling, evangelistic seminars, and Bible studies. Alexis' deepest passion is preparing hearts for the soon coming of Jesus.

Commissioned Ministry of Teaching Credential

The Commissioned Ministry of Teaching Credential is bestowed upon teachers with a life-long commitment to and significant experience in the Seventh-day Adventist system of education. Candidates have taught usually not fewer than six years, with demonstrated proficiency in assigned responsibilities. And candidates have completed and maintained the qualifying denomination teaching certification requirements to practice the profession of instructing children and youth in a Seventh-day Adventist school setting. These individuals have exhibited a keen sense of Christian responsibility for nurturing and leading souls to Christ, for consistently upholding Christ as the focal point of all curriculum and instruction, and for demonstrating positive interpersonal relationships, thus providing an environment of social, spiritual, and emotional stability. “Now these are the gifts Christ gave to the church: the apostles, the prophets, the evangelists, and the pastors and teachers.” — Ephesians 4:11 NLT

Commissioning Candidates

Barbara Eleanor Davis

Barbara Davis was born on the beautiful island of Jamaica and is the third of six children. She is married to George Davis from St. Thomas, Jamaica and is the mother of two sons, a very proud mother-in-law and grandmother. Mrs. Davis believes that all she has achieved in this life was only through favors from God in heaven; therefore, she is careful not to boast about her accomplishments but just wants to say that with God all things are possible.

Barbara Davis was born on the beautiful island of Jamaica and is the third of six children. She is married to George Davis from St. Thomas, Jamaica. She is the mother of two sons, a very proud mother-in-law and grandmother. Barbara believes that all she has achieved in this life was granted only through favors from God in heaven; therefore, she is careful not to boast about her accomplishments but just wants to say that with God all things are possible.

Barbara has an associate of arts degree in elementary education from Miami Dade College, a bachelor of arts degree in elementary education with ESOL endorsement and a master of arts degree in pre/K primary education with gifted endorsement from Barry University in Miami. Davis is currently pursuing a doctor of arts degree in education with a concentration in educational leadership and management. Barbara. She is a certified teacher in the State of Florida.

Prior to being appointed to serve as associated superintendent of education for the Southeastern Conference, Barbara was the principal at Bethel SDA Elementary School in Florida City, Fla.

Barbra is a strong believer in Adventist Education, as a testament to that her two sons attended and graduated from Miami Union Academy in Miami Fla.

Her older son Michael graduated from Oakwood University in Huntsville, Ala. Her younger son Marlon currently attends Oakwood University and will complete his Bachelor's Degree in December of this year.

Warmhearted and compassionate, she has been involved in organizing many charitable events in her native home, Jamaica, and for Haiti.

Barbara is the CEO and Co-founder of Hand of Hope Ministries International Inc. Each year Barbara, along with her husband, dedicates one week to do missionary work outside of the United States. She invites anyone who wants to be a part of such a rewarding experience to come along with them.

Barbara's favorite Bible text is Lam. 3:22-23 where she is reminded daily through this text that it's because of God's mercies that we are not consumed. Her favorite hymn is "Great is Thy Faithfulness."

Barbara loves the Lord and wants to be called worthy by Him when He comes to receive us; she encourages all of us to look forward to that day!

Commissioning Candidates

Shelley Garner

Born in the beautiful city of Montreal, Quebec, Canada, Shelley Garner was dedicated to the cause and purpose of God at an early age. Her mother insisted that she and her sister be actively involved in every aspect of the church program, but even more importantly, her mother was convicted that God required a Christian Education. Shelley was enrolled into the local Seventh-day Adventist Church School at age five, and as the years passed, God led several teachers to influence Shelley's life as her leadership qualities were honed and developed. By the completion of her eighth grade year, Shelley realized that God had called her to work with young minds and to help them find that sense of joy that comes with the adventure of education.

From that small church school, Shelley moved on to academy at Kingsway College where she chose English as her area of discipline. Upon graduation from high school, Shelley moved on to Andrews University, where she majored in English and minored in Behavioral Sciences.

Because of the way SDA Christian Education affected her life, Shelley sought to give back to this distinguished institution. This desire and dedication to the work of God brought her to tropical Miami, Florida where she has served at Miami Union Academy since 1989. During this time, Shelley has taught English in the high school department, provided services as assistant registrar and assistant principal for the high school, and sponsored many activities such as the annual MUA Pageant. These assignments have allowed Shelley to grow spiritually and professionally, and she has accumulated many valuable experiences through her interaction with colleagues, parents and most importantly, her students.

Since moving to Miami, Shelley has been a member of the Miami-Bethany SDA Church. She is married to Carl Garner, and she is the proud mother of Jeremy, Marcus and Bryanne, and her stepson Kyle. As a family, they continue to be committed to seeing God's work at Miami Union Academy continue to grow and prosper, so that all of her "children" may continue to find God's will for their lives.

Throughout her life, Mrs. Garner has always attempted to develop her God-given talents and skills by taking classes in areas such as French, computers, piano, and writing.

Mrs. Garner's deepest desire is that God might show her how to live a life that is pleasing in His sight, and use her to be a beacon to the youth of her community, so that the promise of a home in the earth-made new might be a reality for each of her students.

Mrs. Garner's words of counsel to all of her students is well-known, but has been instrumental in all of her decision making: "Trust in the Lord with all thine heart, and lean not to your own understanding. In all thy ways, acknowledge HIM, and HE shall direct your paths."

Commissioning Candidates

Sherrie Hodge

Sherrie Hodge was born in England. She is the daughter of Henry and Janet Hodge and the sibling of Shawn, Sheldon and Sharon.

Sherrie Hodge currently serves as the principal of the Ephesus Junior Academy, located in West Palm Beach, Fla. She joined the Ephesus Junior Academy faculty in 2002 after two years of working in Hillsborough County School District in Tampa, Fla. Since coming to Ephesus, she has taught 3rd through 9th grades. She has also served as assistant principal.

She earned a bachelor of arts degree in history and political science and biology from La Sierra University, located in La Sierra, Fla. She also holds a certification for secondary education.

Her favorite scriptures are Proverbs 4:23 Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life.

Proverbs 4:25 Let thine eyes look right on, and let thine eyelids look straight before thee.

Proverbs 19:21 There are many devices in a man's heart; nevertheless the counsel of the LORD, that shall stand.

They are important to her because they are reminders to live a thoughtful life and that ultimately only God's counsel will stand.

Tiffany McNealy

Tiffany McNealy is an expert in creating a thought provoking and fun filled classroom environment that stimulates and cultivates academic success for every student that she teaches. Tiffany has more than 10 years of administrative experience as the director of the homeless program at Henderson Mental Health Center individuals and six years of teaching experience with the Southeastern Conference.

Tiffany followed the call of God to His vineyard and began her educational career as a Kindergarten teacher at Broward Junior Academy, located in Ft. Lauderdale, Fla. She later served as an educator and vice principal at the Mt. Olivet SDA School, located in Ft. Lauderdale, Fla. Tiffany has a bachelor of arts degree in psychology from Oakwood University and an master of arts degree in business administration with emphasis in Non-profit management from Carlos Albizu University.

Tiffany is an advocate of Christian education and she wants all of her students to know and understand that with God all things are possible. Most importantly she wants them to know that they are special because God loves them.

Tiffany is sustained by the unconditional love and support of her parents T. A. McNealy, D.Min., pastor of the Northside SDA Church, located in Miami, Florida, and Barbara McNealy, a retired Southeastern Conference educator and principal, and her brother T. A. McNealy II.

Theme Song

“Bringing in the Sheaves”

#369

1. Sowing in the morning, sowing seeds of kindness,
Sowing in the noontide and the dewy eve,
Waiting for the harvest and the time of reaping -
We shall come rejoicing, bringing in the sheaves.

Refrain

Bringing in the sheaves, bringing in the sheaves,
We shall come rejoicing, bringing in the sheaves.
Bringing in the sheaves, bringing in the sheaves,
We shall come rejoicing, bringing in the sheaves.

- 2 Sowing in the sunshine, sowing in the shadows,
Fearing neither clouds nor winter's chilling breeze;
By and by the harvest and the labor ended -
We shall come rejoicing, bringin in the sheaves.
- 3 Going forth with weeping, sowing for the Master,
Tho the loss sustained our spirit often grieves;
When our weeping's over He will bid us welcome -
We shall come rejoicing, bringing in the sheaves

Songs

1. PRAISE HIM! PRAISE HIM!

Praise him! Praise him!
Jesus, our blessed redeemer!
Sing, o earth his wonderful love proclaim!
Hail him! Hail him!
Highest archangels in glory;
Strength and honor give to his holy name!
Like a shepherd, Jesus will guard his children,
In his arms he carries them all day long.

Chorus:

Praise him! Praise him!
Tell of his excellent greatness!
Praise him, praise him every in joyful song.

Praise him! Praise him!
Jesus, our blessed redeemer!
Heavenly portals, loud with hosannas ring!
Jesus, saviour, reigneth forever, and ever;
Crown him! Crown him!
Prophet, and priest, and king!
Christ is coming over the world victorious;
Power and glory unto the lord belong;

2. I SEE JESUS

In the morning I see his face,
In the evening, his form I trace,
In the darkness, his voice I know;
I see Jesus everywhere I go.

3. IN A LITTLE WHILE WE'RE GOING HOME

Let us sing a song that will cheer us by the way
In a little while we're going home;
For the night will end in the everlasting day
In a little while we're going home.

Chorus:

In a little while, in a little while,
We shall cross the billow's foam;
We shall meet at last,
When the stormy winds are past
In a little while we're going home.

There's a rest beyond, there's relief from ev'ry care
In a little while we're going home;
And no tears shall fall
In that city bright and fair
In a little while we're going home.

4. DEEP AND WIDE

Deep and wide, deep and wide,
There's a fountain flowing deep and wide.
Deep and wide, deep and wide,
There's a fountain flowing deep and wide.

5. MORE ABOUT JESUS

More about Jesus I would know
More of his grace to others show
More of his saving fullness see
More of his love who died for me

More, more about Jesus
More, more about Jesus
More of his saving fullness see
More of his love who died for me

More about Jesus on his throne
Riches in glory all his own
More of his kingdom's sure increase
More of his coming, prince of peace

6. MY JESUS, I LOVE THEE

My Jesus, I love thee, I know thou art mine;
For thee all the follies of sin I resign;
My gracious redeemer, my saviour art thou;
If ever I loved thee, my Jesus, 'tis now.

I love thee because thou hast first loved me;
And purchased my pardon on calvary's tree;
I love thee for wearing the thorn on thy brow,
If ever I loved thee, my Jesus, 'tis now.
In mansions of glory and endless delight,
I'll ever adore thee in heaven so bright;
I'll sing with the glittering crown on my brow,
If ever I loved thee, my Jesus, 'tis now.

7. THE SWEETEST NAME I KNOW

Jesus is the sweetest name I know,
And he's just the same as his lovely name,
And that's the reason why I love him so;
Oh, Jesus is the sweetest name I know.

8. SUNSHINE IN THE SOUL

There's sunshine in my soul today
More glorious and bright
Than glows in any earthly sky
For Jesus is my light

O there's sunshine, blessed sunshine
When the peaceful, happy moments roll
When Jesus shows his smiling face
There's sunshine in the soul

There's gladness in my soul today
And hope, and praise, and love,
For blessings which he gives me now
For joys "laid up" above.

9. WHEN WE ALL GET TO HEAVEN

Sing the wondrous love of Jesus,
Sing his mercy and his grace;
In the mansions bright and blessed
He'll prepare for us a place.

Chorus:

When we all get to heaven,
What a day of rejoicing that will be!
When we all see Jesus,
We'll sing and shout the victory!

Onward to the prize before us!
Soon his beauty we'll behold;
Soon the pearly gates will open-
We shall tread the streets of gold.

10. LOVE LIFTED ME

I was sinking deep in sin,
Far from the peaceful shore.
Very deeply stained within, sinking to rise no more.
But the master of the sea, heard my despairing cry,
From the waters lifted me, now safe am i.

Chorus:

Love lifted me! Love lifted me!
When nothing else could help, love lifted me!
(Repeat)

Souls in danger, look above,
Jesus completely saves.
He will lift you by his love out of the angry waves.
He's the master of the sea, billows his will obey.
He your saviour wants to be- be saved today.

11. SAVIOUR, LIKE A SHEPHERD

Saviour, like a shepherd lead us,
Much we need thy tenderest care;
In thy pleasant pastures feed us,
For our use thy folds prepare.
Blessed Jesus, blessed Jesus,
Thou has bought us, thine we are.
Blessed Jesus, blessed Jesus,
Thou has bought us, thine we are.

We are thine, do thou befriend us,
Be the guardian of our way;
Keep thy flock from sin defend us,
Seek us when we go astray.
Blessed Jesus, blessed Jesus,
Hear o hear us when we pray;
Blessed Jesus, blessed Jesus,
Hear o hear us, when we pray.

12. POWER IN THE BLOOD

Would you be free from your burden of sin?
There's power in the blood, power in the blood.
Would you o'er evil a victory win?
There's wonderful power in the blood.

Chorus:

There is power, power, wonder-working power
In the blood of the lamb.
There is power, power, wonder-working power
In the precious blood of the lamb.

Would do service for Jesus your king?
There's power in the blood, power in the blood.
Would you like daily his praises to sing?
There's wonderful power in the blood.

13. STANDING ON THE PROMISES

Standing on the promises of Christ my king;
Through eternal ages let his praises ring;
Glory in the highest, I will shout and sing,
Standing on the promises of God.

Chorus:

Standing, standing.
Standing on the promises of God my saviour.
Standing, standing.
I'm standing on the promises of God.

Standing on the promises I cannot fall.
Listening every moment to the spirit's call.
Resting in my saviour as my all in all,
Standing on the promises of God.

14. SEEKING THE LOST

Seeking the lost, yes, kindly entreating
Wanderers on the mountains astray
"Come unto me," his message repeating,
Words of the master speaking today.

Going afar, a far up on the mountain
Bringing the wand'ers,
The wand'ers back again
Into the fold, the fold of my redeemer,
Jesus the lamb,
The lamb for sinners slain.

Seeking the lost and pointing to Jesus
Souls that are weak and hearts that are sore
Leading them forth in ways of salvation
Showing the path to life evermore.

Thus would I go, for Jesus hath call'd me
Him would I follow day unto day;
Care for the dying, raise up the fallen
Pointing the lost to Jesus the way.

15. O LET ME WALK WITH THEE

O let me walk with thee, my God;
As Enoch walked in days of old;
Place thou my trembling hand in thine;
And sweet communion with me hold;
E'en though the path I may not see,
Yet, Jesus let me walk with thee.

If I may rest my hand in thine.
I'll count the joys of earth but loss.
And firmly, bravely journey on,
I'll bear the banner of the cross.
Till Zion's glorious gates I see;
Yet, saviour, let me walk with thee.

16. WHAT THE WORLD NEEDS IS JESUS

What the world needs is Jesus,
Just a glimpse of him.
What the world needs is Jesus,
Just a glimpse of him.
He will bring joy and gladness,
Take away sin and sadness;
What the world needs is Jesus,
Just a glimpse of him.

17. TO GOD BE THE GLORY

To God be the glory,
Great things he hath done.
So loved he the world
That he gave us his son.
Who yielded his life an atonement for sin,
And opened the life gate that all may go in.

Chorus:

Praise the lord, praise the lord,
Let the earth hear his voice.
Praise the lord, praise the lord,
Let the people rejoice.
O come to the father, through Jesus the son,
And give him the glory,
Great things he hath done.

Great things he hath taught us,
Great things he hath done.
And great our rejoicing through Jesus the son;
But purer and higher, and greater will be
Our wonder, our transport, when Jesus we see.

18. WHEN THE ROLL IS CALLED UP YONDER

When the trumpet of the lord shall sound
And time shall be no more,
And the morning breaks eternal, bright and fair.
When the saved of earth shall gather
Over on the other shore,
And the roll is called up yonder, I'll be there.

Chorus:

When the roll is called up yonder,
When the roll is called up yonder,
When the roll is called up yonder,
When the roll is called up yonder I'll be there!

On that bright and cloudless morning,
When the dead in Christ shall rise,
And the glory of his resurrection share,
When his chosen ones shall gather
To their home beyond the skies,
And the roll is called up yonder I'll be there.

Let us labor for the master
From the dawn till setting sun.
Let us talk of all his wondrous love and care;
Then when all of life is over
And our work on earth is done;
And the roll is called up yonder I'll be there.

19. THE FAMILY OF GOD

I'm so glad I'm a part of the family of God –
I've been washed in the fountain,
Cleaned by his blood.
Joint heirs with Jesus as we travel this sod –
For I'm part of the family,
The family of God.

20. MY HOPE IS BUILT

My hope is built on nothing less
Than Jesus blood and righteousness;
I dare not trust the sweetest frame,
But wholly lean on Jesus name.

Chorus:

On Christ, the solid rock I stand,
All other ground is sinking sand,
All other ground is sinking sand.

When darkness seems to veil his face.
I rest on his unchanging grace.
In every high and stormy gale,
My anchor holds within the veil.

His oath, his covenant, and blood
Support me in the whelming flood;
When all around my soul gives way,
He then is all my hope and stay.

When he shall come with trumpet sound,
O may I then in him be found.
Clad in his righteousness alone,
Faultless to stand before the throne.

21. JESUS LIFTED ME

I'm so glad Jesus lifted me,
I'm so glad Jesus lifted me,
I'm so glad Jesus lifted me,
Singing glory, hallelujah
Jesus lifted me.

22. IF YOU WANT JOY

If you want joy, real joy, wonderful joy,
Let Jesus come into your heart,
If you want joy, real joy, wonderful joy,
Let Jesus come into your heart;
Your sins he'll wash away,
Your night he'll turn to day,
Your life he'll make it over anew.
If you want joy, real joy, wonderful joy,
Let Jesus come into your heart.

23. WHAT A FELLOWSHIP

What a fellowship, what a joy divine,
Leaning on the everlasting arms;
What a blessedness, what a peace in mine,
Leaning on the everlasting arms.

Chorus:

Leaning, leaning,
Safe and secure from all alarms;
Leaning, leaning,
Leaning on the everlasting arms.

O how sweet to walk in this pilgrim way,
Leaning on the everlasting arms.
O how bright the path grows from day to day,
Leaning on the everlasting arms.

What have I do dread, what have I to fear,
Leaning on the everlasting arms?
I have blessed peace with my lord so near,
Leaning on the everlasting arms.

24. TIS SO SWEET

Tis so sweet to trust in Jesus,
Just to take him at his word,
Just to rest upon him promise,
Just to know, "thus saith the lord."

Chorus:

Jesus, Jesus, how I trust him.
How I've proved him o'er and o're!
Jesus, Jesus precious Jesus!
O for grace to trust him more.

O how sweet to trust in Jesus,
Just to trust his cleansing blood;
Just in simple faith to plunge me,
'Neath the healing, cleaning flood.

Yes, 'tis sweet to trust in Jesus,
Just from sin and self to cease;
Just from Jesus simply taking,
Life, and rest, and joy, and peace.

I'm so glad I learned to trust thee;
Precious Jesus, saviour, friend.
And I know that thou art with me;
Wilt be with me till the end.

25. BLESSED ASSURANCE

Blessed assurance, Jesus is mine.
O, what a foretaste of glory divine!
Heir to salvation, purchase of God,
Born of his spirit, washed in his blood.

Chorus:

This is my story, this is my song.
Praising my saviour, all the day long.
This is my story, this is my song,
Praising my saviour all the day long.

Perfect submission, perfect delight.
Visions of rapture now burst on my sight.
Angels descending bring from above,
Echoes of mercy, whispers of love.

Perfect submission, all is at rest,
I in my saviour am happy and blest.
Watching and waiting, looking above,
Filled with his goodness, lost in his love.

26. STAND UP! STAND UP FOR JESUS!

Stand up! Stand up for Jesus!
Ye soldiers of the cross;
Lift high his royal banner,
It must not suffer loss.
From victory unto victory,
His army shall he lead,
Till every foe is vanquished,
And Christ is lord indeed.

Stand up! Stand up for Jesus,
Stand in his strength alone;
The arm of flesh will fail you;
Ye dare not trust your own.
Put on the gospel armor,
And watching unto prayer,
Where duty calls, or danger,
Be never wanting there.

Rules & Regulations

Alcoholic Beverages / Cigarettes / Drugs / Firearms / Fireworks:

None of these items are permitted on the grounds. Any camper that is found in violation of any or all of the above will be dismissed from the campground immediately.

Chairs:

The chairs have been purchased for the services in the various tents and pavilions. We are asking that they remain intact for each service.

Children:

Parents are requested to give careful supervision to their children. Minors (17 and under) will not be allowed to reside on the grounds unless accompanied by parents or some other responsible adult. If detected, children will be sent home immediately at parents expense.

Cleanliness:

These are your grounds. If you see paper laying on the ground, kindly pick it up and place it in a trash container.

Curfew:

The Curfew is 11 p.m.. All CAMPERS are asked to be in their respective places for silence and rest.

Dress Code:

Recognizing that Christians should be modest in their dress, we would like to encourage all campers to wear clothing that is in line with the standards of our church.

Electrical:

Due to fire hazards, please do not connect electrical cords to outlets other than as authorized.

First Aid:

A registered nurse is on the grounds at all times for emergencies, and a physician is on call. Please refer all accidents to the medical building.

Golf Carts:

No one under 18 years of age is allowed to drive a golf cart. The six seater golf carts are available to provide transportation for our Senior Citizens or members with ambulatory disabilities. Children are not allowed on the six seater carts unless accompanied by a guardian who meets this criteria.

Lost and Found:

Please bring all articles found to the office. The office staff will try to assist in locating the owner of the item(s).

Meals:

Meals can be purchased in the cafeteria and snack bar at a reasonable rate. Meal tickets are available in the cafeteria during breakfast and lunch time.

Parking:

Your cooperation is needed in parking your car in the areas designated for parking. Please cooperate with the parking attendants.

Selling on Grounds:

Private vendors are not allowed to sell items on the campground without documented authorization from the Campground Management Personnel.

Telephone:

Since we are limited to only a few telephones on the grounds, it will be necessary to limit all phone calls to five minutes in order to accommodate all concerned.
